Weddings, Reunions, and More!

Red Wing would love to be the host of your corporate event or special occasion.

You name it, we want to celebrate it with you: family/high school reunion, bridal/baby shower, milestone birthdays, or the special day where you say "I do."

Everything you need to plan your event is available in or near Red Wing. Make your selection from historic venues, shabby sheek atmospheres to traditional settings. There are also an array of florists, photographers and bakeries to provide services for your party. Choose your venue, then allow the event coordinator to direct you to the resources that will make your event memorable.
